

APPLICATION FORM

The Oxford Centre is a group of local members and volunteers of the National Trust formed in 1969 to further their common interest in the preservation of the country's heritage. At present there are around 377 members.

Throughout the year we arrange coach outings to places of interest, social events and fundraising activities. Illustrated lectures are held during the winter months.

The Newsletter with details of the events and how to apply for them is sent 3 times a year.

Oxford Centre Membership

Your initial subscription may be made by cheque or bank transfer. If paying directly to the bank, please send the completed application form either by email or post to the Membership Secretary (see address below) and confirm your date of payment.

If you join after September 1st your subscription will cover the remainder of the year, and the whole of the next year as well. Further subscriptions are due on January 1st each year.

Members are requested to pay their annual subscription by Standing Order. The Bank details are
